To register more faculty members, copy this form and submit additional names with this order

The faculty member who receives the shipment of DVDs and Sharpening Horses is responsible for the safe keeping and distribution of these items. If all of the DVDs shipped are not paid for by the students, the faculty member will return both the DVDs and the Sharpening Horse Kits and shipping costs will be the responsibility of their institution. The faculty member or institution may purchase the items at the same reduced price that was charged to the students ($127.45 for the DVD with the Sharpening Horse Kit being free). This order requires the signature of the faculty member who will be responsible for these items and signing here indicates that they understand the responsibility and will distribute the items only to those who present with a receipt, and ship back items not purchased.
